

How FAR Would You GO FOR A CURE?

AUGUST 9-11, 2024
PACIFIC CREST TRAIL
MT. HOOD, OREGON

The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation is thrilled to celebrate our 5th annual Oregon Xtreme Hike. Join us for a bucket list experience as we take to the trails on Mt. Hood while raising funds and awareness to support those living with CF. Multiple route options available!

For participants who commit to fundraising $2500 or more, your journey includes:

- Detailed hiker packet with welcome guide, training schedule, fundraising tips, apparel/gear list, FAQs
- Lodging for two nights at Timberline Lodge*
- Official Xtreme Hike wicking t-shirt
- Kick off dinner on Friday
- Transportation to and from the trail on hike day
- Grab and go breakfast, lunch, and trail snacks for hike day
- Rest stops and aid stations along the trail
- Victory awards brunch on Sunday
- A lifetime of memories

*Lodging assignments will be based on double occupancy but single accommodations may be available for individual hikers.

Timberline Lodge

Paradise Park

Split Rock

Ramona Falls

Mt. Hood from Bald Mountain

XTREME HIKE- Orange Route

20.3 miles- 4900' elevation gain

START: Timberline Lodge

Rest Stop #1: Split Rock- Paradise Park - 6.6 miles

Rest Stop/Aid Station #2: Ramona Falls, 11 miles

Rest Stop/Aid Station #3: Top Spur Trailhead, 15.5 miles

FINISH: Lolo Pass Trailhead

XTREME HIKE TRAIL- Yellow Route

12.5 miles- 3700' elevation gain

START: Ramona Falls Trailhead

Rest Stop/Aid Station #1: Ramona Falls, 3.2 miles

Rest Stop/Aid Station #2: Top Spur Trailhead, 7.7 miles

FINISH: Lolo Pass Trailhead

